"The bulbs I have been getting from you for over 15 years now make quite a show in the Spring, especially the daffodils that I naturalized. People come here each year to see them. They are a great beauty." Mrs. J. F. Carter, Point of Rocks, Frederick Co., Md.

"Last year you sent me the Red Emperor tulips which bloom early. This year I'm ordering 100 Rainbow Mixture tulips to bloom later. After the early variety is finished I'd like the later ones to be coming in. Everybody admired the Red Emperors last year." Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Yeadon, Penna.

"I have just seen some of the loveliest daffodils I've ever seen grown, and the bulbs came from your flower farm. Will you please add my name to your mailing list?" Mrs. W. B. Campbell, Baton Rouge, La.

"I want to thank you for sending me such nice bulbs last fall. The daffodils and hyacinths are blooming now and are perfectly beautiful. . . . My red Jan Bos hyacinth has an eight inch stalk, full of blooms, and the color has attracted everyone's attention." Miss Bennie York, Nashville, Tenn.

"We are moving to a new house this fall and it is with regret that I leave the bushel of your bulbs we planted here five years ago. They seem to get lovelier each year." Mrs. Thomas I. Crowell, Charlottesville, Va.

"I have so enjoyed the daffodils I got from you two years ago, and in spite of the crowded condition of my small garden, I feel I must have more. Please send me a peck of your River's Edge Novelty Mixture." Mars Hanson, Kansas City, Mo.

"We were more than pleased with the bulbs received from you last year and are, right now, enjoying the beauty of the tulips. The daffodils are about gone but the muscari blooming, and we did have lots of scilla and snowdrops." Mrs. James N. Rasmussen, Otis, Mass.

"We just bought a big old house and the yard is very large. There is a deep border all around it and my husband and I are to dig it all up and cultivate it. . . . Two years ago you sent me some bulbs and I have had the most beautiful flowers." Mrs. Peter Gow, Attleboro, Mass.

"The daffodils I ordered from you last year were superb. I can not tell you how much pleasure they gave us, how long they bloomed. I hope to buy another peck for fall planting." Mrs. Bessie Barrett, Letohatchie, Ala.
